Jacques Le Pape

Jacques Le Pape has been a Founding Partner at Ceres Partners since July 2022. Since May 2021, he has also served as Chair of the Board of Directors of Caisse Centrale de Réassurance (CCR) in Paris. He is also a member of UNESCO's Advisory Oversight Committee.

Jacques Le Pape graduated in physics from the Ecole Normale Supérieure in Paris in 1990. He is a member of the French Institute of Actuaries and holds a postgraduate degree from the Paris School of Economics.

From 2018 to 2020, he served as the CFO of The Global Fund in Geneva. Prior to that, he was an Inspector General at the French Ministry of Finance's Inspection Générale des Finances. From 2013 to 2016, Jacques Le Pape served as Executive Vice-President and Corporate Secretary at Air France-KLM where he was a member of the Group Executive Committee.

From 2007 to 2011, he served as Deputy Chief of Staff and Special Adviser to Christine Lagarde at the French Ministry of Finance, before joining the Inspection Générale des Finances. Between 2003 and 2007, he served successively as an adviser to the French Ministers of Justice, Transport and Finance.

From 2000 to 2002, he was Director of the Office of Multilateral Development Institutions at the French Treasury. Prior to that, he served as Deputy General Rapporteur at the French Competition Council, after holding various positions at the French Ministry of Finance and the Insurance Supervisory Commission.