PRESS RELEASE

Certification of the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund (HRADF) by TÜV AUSTRIA Hellas with ISO 22301:2019

In the context of HRADF's policy for transparency and good corporate governance, the company was certified with the leading international standard for Business Continuity

TÜV AUSTRIA Hellas, the leading Certification and Inspection Body in Greece, has completed the certification of HRADF, according to ISO 22301: 2019. HRADF, one of the State's leading strategic partners for the promotion and enhancement of the growth potential of the Greek economy, was certified according to the leading international standard for Business Continuity, adopting a reliable system of resilience.

HRADF, a subsidiary of the GROWTHFUND – The National Fund of Greece, with the certification based on the ISO 22301: 2019 standard, adopts and consolidates the basic principles of the Business Continuity System.

The Chief Operating Officer of HRADF, Spyros Kotsiopoulos, stated: "Our main goal is to ensure the operational resilience of the company after any unforeseen events. Through this process we protect our customers and our employees from potential risks".

HRADF has also been certified by TÜV AUSTRIA Hellas with the internationally recognized certifications, ISO 9001: 2015 for the Quality Management System, ISO 27001: 2013 for the Information Security Management System and ISO 37001/2016 for the Anti-Bribery Management System, ensuring the organization's ability to consistently provide services that meet the legal and regulatory requirements and give credibility and trust to the company.
