PRESS RELEASE

HRADF: One (1) bid for the development of the Markopoulo Olympic Equestrian Center

HRADF, a member company of GROWTHFUND – The National Fund of Greece, received today, Tuesday, January 31, 2023, one (1) bid for the long-term lease of part of the former Olympic Equestrian Center of Markopoulo, Attica, where the equestrian events were held during the 2004 Olympic Games.

The bid was submitted by the following investment scheme:

- APLEKTON HOLDINGS CO. LIMITED

The property to be developed has an area of 589.5 acres and includes indoor and outdoor sports facilities. It is located within the administrative boundaries of the Municipality of Markopoulo, in Merenda, at 43 km from the center of Athens and 13 km from the Athens International Airport.

According to the Special Plan for the Spatial Development of Public Property, an area within the former Olympic Equestrian Center is defined with the mandatory use of sports riding, while in the rest of the property sports and mild commercial and tourist uses are allowed with a complementary character to the operation of sports facilities.

Please refer to the Fund's website for more information and updates regarding the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund (HRADF).
