HRADF's Chairman, Mr. Stergios Pitsiorlas commented on the award-winning: "The international recognition of HRADF by the distinguished journal "The European" with "Global National FDI Program" Award for 2016 is a great honor for the Fund and its' executives. The international financial community recognizes, in the most tangible way, our country's efforts to enter growth, levered by means of the privatization program adopted by HRADF, while implementing the government's decisions. The said awarding evidences that Greece's commitment to regain its' international credibility already has visible results, via a comprehensive strategy to attract direct foreign investments."

About "The European Awards"

The European Awards reward excellence for 10 years. The publishing company does not prepare a list of potential winners of its' awards. All organizations or individuals who participate in the voting, are prequalified by the magazine's subscribers/ readers (Businesses, People of High Wealth - HNW Individuals, CEOs, CFOs, BoDs' Chairmen), who complement each nomination through an online platform.

The Awards Panel itself is made up of former fortune 500 individuals, global experts and industry leaders.
