

HELLENIC REPUBLIC ASSET
DEVELOPMENT FUND

PRESS RELEASE

Successful sale of two more properties for €3,2 million through the electronic platform of HRADF

Athens, September 19, 2013 – HRADF concluded the sale of two more public properties, through the electronic platform e-publicrealestate.gr, for €3.211.000.

Those properties are:

- Building in the center of Athens at Tsakalof st. 34, Kolonaki 503 sq.m., €1.211.000, 10% above the reserved price
- Suburban land in N. Irakleia, Chalkidiki, 44.070 sq.m., €2.000.000

By selling five (5) public properties, through the electronic platform HRADF has managed to generate, within two months, revenues of €11.000.000 to the Greek State. The E-Auction platform is ideal for commercializing urban properties as well as small to medium rural plots. Its main advantages are transparency, buyers' convenience and easy access from everywhere in world. According to HRADF's program 20 more properties, will be sold through the platform in 2013.

For further information please refer to the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund's website (<http://www.hradf.com>).