PRESS RELEASE

Another successful sale of property through the electronic platform of HRADF

Athens, September 17, 2013 – Another property was sold through a highly competitive process for € 434.300, 40% above the reserved price, through the E-Auction platform. (e-publicrealestate.gr)

The property is a building at Smolenski st. 4, Neo Faliro, 372 sq.m.

The E-Auction platform is ideal for commercializing urban properties as well as small to medium rural plots. Its main advantages are transparency, buyers' convenience and easy access from everywhere in world.
